

GIVING THANKS

LOOK

This week we will be celebrating our annual holiday of Thanksgiving. We all have traditions and family ways of spending the holiday. Many will gather with families and prepare large “feasts”. Others will be lonely and even hungry in this country of “plenty”. For some, a loved one or friend will be missing this year.

1. As you look toward this Thanksgiving day what are your expectations? Are they different than last year? If so, how?
2. How will you cope with any changes?
